9.11 Annexure 11: OICL Present IT Setup

Core Insurance Solution (INLIAS)

Oriental is the first PSU Company to have implemented core insurance software in all the offices, including all the Business Centres. The application has a centralized architecture and handles the entire business operations in an integrated manner. It has benefit of Centralized Change Management and also makes available companywide MIS for Management.

To bring uniformity, security and centralized access OICL has adopted integrated non-life insurance application software, named INLIAS, with the help of its technology partner, M/s 3i-Infotech. The INLIAS application serves the business requirements of OICL including underwriting, accounting, claims processing, report generation and reinsurance requirements. It has integration with our Web Portal, AICL for Crop Insurance, Automobile manufacturers / Broker Portals, MOIA for PBBY, Maruti, TVS and Online access to TPAs, corporate customers and Motor Dealers. It has features of E-Mail / SMS alerts for all the stake holders.

The application is deployed on Oracle 11g Database and Oracle 10g AS forms and reports. The hardware platform is Oracle M6 servers with Solaris 10 OS.

The company has issued more than 12 million policies in the year 2015-16.

As on date, all offices of OICL are provisioned with dual active-active links using MPLS over RF, leased lines etc. Further, Roam connectivity is provided to BCs and Micro Offices.

Daily around 40,000 documents (proposal, endorsement etc.) are being entered into the system. Users generate around 50,000 transaction reports (Premium receipt etc.) and 25000 non-transaction reports (GL Summary etc.) on a normal working day. The transaction load increases by around 10% on every month-end/year-end. Also the volume of report-generation increases on the first three working days of every month.

OICL has its primary data centre at Bengaluru and Disaster recovery site at Navi Mumbai.

Web Portal:

OICL also has state-of-the-art web portal through which customers can transact, make payments and track the status of various transactions. The web portal is available for use of its customers, Agents and other stake holders with a provision for premium calculator, payment gateway and online issuance/ renewal of policies. The OICL IT Architecture is designed around a central data centre with all OICL offices connecting to this data centre over a VPN. The data centers and the OICL Offices have dual redundant connectivity links over VPN

OICL IT Infrastructure is enabled by a 24x7 data centre. Within the data centre various servers and associated equipment is hosted that provide the processing power and storage for running/managing application programs. This layer also includes system software (operating system) that forms a part of the hardware deployed.

The servers in turn are used to host applications including INLIAS, SAP, HRMS, Portal, E-mail, Proxy, etc. that provide business services to the users.

On top of the application layer there is a network layer that makes these applications accessible from remote offices (VPN) and finally the end user's computer (LAN).

The users accessing these applications from their desktops form the top of this logical view of the OICL IT landscape. All the other elements are ultimately to serve the users in performing their business functions.
